

2016 Political Contributions

Political Contributions and Expenditures Disclosures: Apache Corporation's political contributions are made through the Governmental Affairs department. The Vice President of Governmental Affairs oversees and has final authority over corporate political spending decisions.

The below table details payments of dues and special assessments made in 2016:

- Contributions to US Political Action Committees, 527 Organizations, political parties, and candidates (none, payments to such organizations are prohibited by our policies);
- Contributions in connection with state or local ballot measures; and
- Total payments of $50,000 or more to US-based civic groups (501(c)(4)) that engage in political activities and US-based trade associations (501(c)(6)) including the portion of those dues and special assessments that were used for activities that are not deductible under Chapter 162(e) of the Internal Revenue Code, if such information is available after making reasonable efforts to obtain the information from such associations.

In addition to the above mentioned disclosures, listed below are contributions made by the Apache Political Action Committee (PAC) to federal and state level candidates.
